Journal of Asian Orientation in Theology is founded and sponsored by Sanata Dharma University School of Theology. It publishes scientific and critical thoughts in Asian theology with contextual and interdisciplinary approaches.

The focus of this publication is to develop contextual theological discourses in dialogue with sociological, anthropological, comparative religion, religious studies, historical, cultural and psychological perspectives and takes the diversity of Asian societies and cultures as its context. The journal is open to scholars from all religious backgrounds who are undertaking serious theological works that are related to Asia.
